Southwater Parish Council (SPC)

As has been previously reported, the SPC offices at Beeson House are staffed and work continues as usual but the offices are not open to the public following restriction guidelines and enabling safe working practice for staff. SPC staff are operating a safe working rota to ensure safe distancing can be adhered to, this may include some working from home.

Currently SPC's daily function is to continue to deliver community services as usual and to help in the facilitation of local support groups and neighbourhood networks. SPC is a main point of enquiry and direction of residents to appropriate groups that can help.

If there are any local support groups, businesses able to assist or neighbourhood networks within Southwater Parish who can provide assistance, please contact the Clerk at clerk@southwater-pc.gov.uk or call the Parish Office on 01403 733202.

If any resident needs help or advise, please contact the Clerk at clerk@southwater-pc.gov.uk or call the Parish Office on 01403 733202.
